This bill may be cited as "Appeals Funding for the African Student Association’s Taste of Africa Event."

According to the Student Allocations, Budgeting, and Auditing Committee (SABAC) Bylaws, a student organization may appeal SABAC’s allocation decision within two weeks from notification. If SABAC does not change the funding allocation after review, a member of SABAC should present the funding appeal as a piece of legislation to the Student Senate. The legislation must be heard on the senate floor within two weeks of the date in which the appeal was filed. It should be noted that the Finance Team recognizes that current appeals process may not be in the best interest of the committee, a review of the SABAC’s main goals is to be objective and strictly follow the funding decision. The only exception would be if an error is made on behalf of the committee, in which case, it will be corrected.

The University of Iowa Student Government strives to fund as many student organizations as possible in order to benefit students across campus. Unfortunately, due to increased travel for Review Period 4 (allocation meeting on September 23rd) and to cut all other requests made during this period by 50%, the SABAC allocation account has between $300,000 and $400,000 for FY20 (to spend from July 1, 2019 to June 30, 2020). Split across 26 two-week periods (the frequency with which SABAC reviews requests), the Finance Team has between

Section 3. Budget

Still and the Iowa City community, at Bradley, October 3rd at the Robert A. Lee Recreation Center. This event is for students, funds for renting a venue and to buy groceries for the native dishes and cultures. The event will be held at the Robert A. Lee Recreation Center. The event will feature cultural dishes from various African countries. The African Student Association will be hosting their annual event, Taste of Africa. They want to reach out to more students this year to come out and enjoy this event. With this being the second event, they want to educate students on the different cultural cuisines that African countries have to offer.

The African Student Association will be hosting their annual event, Taste of Africa.

$953.90. Below is the purpose of ASA's event:

Their Taste of Africa event. Since all non-travel requests were cut 50%, ASA was allocated $1,906.39 for University Review Period 4. The African Student Association (ASA) requested $1,906.39 for University Review Period 4. To spend during each funding period. For reference, SABGC received over $11,500 and $1,500 to spend during each funding period. For reference, SABGC received over.
I hereby certify that this bill originated from the 2019-2020 Student Senate Session.
